This program is contingent upon annual funding by the Johnson Scholarship Foundation and matching funding by the Florida Legislature

The Johnson Scholarship, funded by the Johnson Scholarship Foundation, is a competitively awarded program available to undergraduate students with disability(ies) enrolled in a State University System of Florida institution. Students must meet the following requirements to be considered for scholarship selection:

- Be a Florida resident for tuition purposes
- Be seeking a first baccalaureate degree
- Complete a Theodore R. and Vivian M. Johnson Scholarship Application
- Meet academic requirements
- Provide documentation of the nature and/or extent of a disability(ies)
- Demonstrate financial need as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)/institutional need. Submit a FAFSA or renewal FAFSA form by the required deadline at <https://fafsa.edu.edu>. Confirm that the Federal School Code for your university is designated so that the university has access to your results in assessing your unmet financial need.

IF SELECTED, RECIPIENTS MUST:

- Complete and return an acceptance form or contact the appropriate institution representative (listed at the end of the application) by the date specified in your notification letter. Failure to return the acceptance form by the specified date will result in forfeiture of the award.
- Participate in a Johnson Scholarship orientation
- Complete a minimum of nine (9) credit hours each semester or 18 credit hours over fall, spring, and summer semesters
- Maintain the minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average requirement of this program
- Continue to have unmet financial/institutional need

FIRST-TIME APPLICANTS MUST SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING TO THE STATE UNIVERSITY:

- A completed 2023-2024 Johnson Scholarship Application by the deadline
- A completed FAFSA by March 1, 2023, to Federal Student Aid and provision for university access to the evaluation completed by Federal Student Aid
- A current official transcript (students applying as a first-semester freshman should provide their high school transcript) showing a 2.0 grade point average
- Documentation of a disability(ies) in one or more of the following classifications: Attention Deficit Disorder/Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder; Autism Spectrum Disorder; Blind or Low Vision; Deaf/Hard of Hearing; Orthopedic Disability; Psychological, Emotional, or Behavioral Disability; Speech/Language Disability; Specific Learning Disability; Traumatic Brain Injury; and/or Other Health Disabilities. Appropriate documentation includes, but is not limited to, a recent psychological evaluation used to determine eligibility for exceptional student services, school/medical records, certification by the Division of Blind Services, or a Vocational Rehabilitation eligibility determination. The documentation provided must meet the guidelines required by the institution in which the student is enrolled. Students must contact the university's Office of Student Disability Services for clarification as to what is required.
- A personal statement (no more than one double-spaced page) about your achievements, activities, career goals, and how your disability(ies) has impacted your life

- Two letters of reference addressing your academic success and potential. One letter may be an academic reference addressing your academic success and potential. One letter may be a personal reference.

NOTE: If you receive a Johnson Scholarship, you must still apply for renewal consideration each academic year you desire the award. Johnson Scholarship recipients may qualify for the award for up to 120 semester credit hours of undergraduate study.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

If you apply for admission at more than one institution, submit the completed Johnson Scholarship application materials to each university. The application should be sent to the contact person listed at the end of this form. The application, official transcript, disability documentation, personal statement, and letters of reference must be received by the institution(s) no later than April 14, 2023.

NOTIFICATION

All applicants will be notified of their status as Johnson Scholarship recipients, alternate award candidates, or as students who were not selected. Notification letters will be mailed in July to the permanent address specified on the application form.

AWARD PAYMENT

After enrollment verification, the university will disburse the award on a prorated basis each academic term to eligible Johnson Scholarship recipients. The dollar amount of the 2023-2024 awards is contingent upon the level of funding from the Johnson Scholarship Foundation and the Florida Legislature.
