

ARTICLE 9
COACHING, DISCIPLINE, AND JOB ABANDONMENT

9.1 Policy.

- (a) Employees are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge, for just cause, including but not limited to, for violating University procedures, policies, rules, and regulations, contract provisions, personnel directives, and/or general orders.
- (b) Due process shall be provided prior to any final decisions regarding disciplinary actions (excluding oral reprimands).
- (c) Employees shall be provided notice and a written statement of any disciplinary action taken (excluding oral reprimands).

9.2 Coaching and Letters of Counseling/Instruction.

(a) Coaching.

- (1) Coaching is intended to be an informal and constructive process that seeks to improve employee performance or to discuss issue(s) of concern.
- (2) Coaching includes guidance for correction and an opportunity to correct an employee's performance.
- (3) Coaching is not considered discipline.

(b) Letters of Counseling/Instruction.

- (1) If previous verbal discussion or coaching is not effective, or if a supervisor solely determines that written guidance is warranted, Letters of Counseling or Instruction may be given to an employee. As a formal communication to the faculty member, such letters will:
  - a. identify issues of concern;
  - b. provide guidance for correction, if appropriate, and;
  - c. provide a meaningful opportunity to correct, if appropriate.
- (2) Letters should provide relevant information regarding university policies, regulations, or provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement or information about the University's Employee Assistance Program.
- (3) Such letters are not considered discipline, are not grievable, and are not placed in the employee's's personnel file unless requested by the employee.
- (4) These letters may be used only as evidence to demonstrate the employee's awareness of University expectations.
- (5) If the employee believes that the letter's contents, in whole or in part, are unreasonable or contrary to university policies, regulations, or provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, they may, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the letter, schedule a discussion of the letter with the Provost or designee. The Provost or designee will schedule this discussion to take place within thirty (30) days of receipt of the employee’s request. The employee will be informed of their right this discussion in the letter.

9.3 Just Cause. Discipline of bargaining unit employees shall be for just cause. Just cause is defined as:

- (a) Incompetence;
- (b) Misconduct, or;
- (c) Neglect of duty.

9.4 Progressive Discipline.

(a) Disciplinary actions typically are progressive. Penalties shall be appropriate to the circumstances and proportionate to the seriousness of the offense. All offenses can have a cumulative effect, and offenses need not be identical to impose a penalty more severe than prescribed for a similar offense. Depending on the nature of the conduct and the facts and circumstances of the situation, discipline may be imposed without prior use of coaching.

(b) Certain actions by their nature may be severe enough, however, to justify deviating from progressive disciplinary principles, and result in immediate discharge of employment or other disciplinary action. Progressive discipline does not have to “start” with a written reprimand; if instances warrant, discipline may start with suspension or discharge.

(c) Forms of discipline may include, but are not limited to:

- (1) written reprimand;
- (2) suspension with pay;
- (3) suspension without pay; and
- (4) termination.

(d) If an employee is terminated for disciplinary reasons, they will be given sixty (60) days notice. The university may place the employee on paid administrative leave during the sixty (60) days.

1 9.5 Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action.

- 2 (a) When the President or designee has reason to believe that a suspension or
- 3 termination should possibly be imposed as a disciplinary consequence, the
- 4 President or designee shall provide the employee with a written Notice of Proposed
- 5 Disciplinary Action and the rationale for such action.
- 6 (b) Such Notice shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested, to the employee’s
- 7 last known address, delivered to the employee in person, or e-mailed to the
- 8 employee’s university e-mail address.
- 9 (c) In the event that the University reasonably believes that the employee’s actions or
- 10 presence on the job would adversely affect the orderly conduct and processes of the
- 11 University, and/or jeopardize the safety or welfare of the employee, faculty and
- 12 staff, or students, the employee may be placed on paid administrative leave pending
- 13 the outcome of a proposed disciplinary action. Administrative leave is not
- 14 discipline.
- 15 (d) Within ten (20) days of receipt of the Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action, the
- 16 employee must submit a written response to the President
- 17 (President@FloridaPoly.edu) or designee before the proposed action is taken.
- 18 (e) After receiving the written response or, if no response is received after twenty (20)
- 19 days from the date of receipt of the Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action, the
- 20 President or designee may issue a Notice of Disciplinary Action under Section 9.6.
- 21 (f) In certain instances, the President or designee may choose to include an adhoc panel
- 22 to evaluate the responses and any other material in order to provide a
- 23 recommendation regarding the discipline, if any, that should be applied. The
- 24 President or designee will request that members chosen for the panel identify any
- 25 conflicts of interest that might arise from their service on the panel. The President
- 26 or designee may excuse panel members for conflicts of interest. However, the
- 27 President or designee will excuse any members of UFF’s Contract Enforcement
- 28 Committee from serving on such a panel.

29 9.6 Notice of Disciplinary Action.

- 30 (a) All Notices of Disciplinary Action shall include a statement of the reasons for the
- 31 disciplinary action and a statement advising the employee that the action is subject
- 32 to Article 11 - Grievance and Arbitration Procedure.
- 33 (b) All such notices shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested, to the
- 34 employee’s last known address, delivered in person to the employee, or e-mailed

16 9.8 Investigations.

17 (a) When an employee is questioned by management as part of an investigation, or the 18 employee reasonably believes that the questioning may lead to disciplinary action,
19 the employee has the right to request that a union representative be present at the 20 meeting.

21 (b) When an employee requests union representation pursuant to this section, and no
22 union representative is immediately available, the University shall postpone the 23 meeting until a representative is available, cancel the meeting, or at the employee’s
24 option, continue the meeting without a representative.

25 9.9 UFF Representation. UFF determines representation per its governing documents. The 26 UFF does not represent bargaining unit employees who are not members in good standing
27 at the time of an alleged incident.

28 9.10 Job Abandonment.

29 (a) If an employee is absent without authorized leave for three (3) or more consecutive

6 shall be used as a reason for imposing or withholding discipline under this Article, except
7 for information relating to a faculty member’s failure to participate in an employee
8 assistance program consistent with the terms to which the faculty member and the
