A. APPLICABILITY/ACCOUNTABILITY:

This policy applies to all Instructors of Record and students enrolled in course offered at the University.

B. POLICY STATEMENT:

Students are expected to attend all of their scheduled University classes and to satisfy all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. The effect of unexcused absences upon a student’s grade is to be determined by the instructor; however, the University reserves the right to deal, at any time, with individual cases of non-attendance.

Students are responsible for arranging to make up work missed due to a valid, excused class absence, such as: illness, family emergencies, military obligation, court-imposed legal obligations, or participation in University-approved activities. It is the student's responsibility to give the instructor notice prior to any anticipated absence, and within a reasonable period of time after an unanticipated absence, ordinarily by the next scheduled class meeting.

University regulations require that reasonable accommodations be made for religious observance, practice, and belief of individual students in regard to class attendance, the scheduling of examinations, and work assignments. Instructors must allow each student the opportunity to make up work missed, due to a validly excused absence, without any reduction in the student's final course grade because of the absence alone.
