Academic Review Board Reflective Worksheet

The Academic Review Board (ARB) is led by Florida Poly faculty. The ARB may recommend success measures for students, identified as academically at-risk, which must be followed to continue their enrollment. The ARB may impose certain restrictions on at-risk students related to registration, academic requirements, and academic support services.

Please take the time to seriously reflect on your current term performance when completing this worksheet.

❖ Why did you choose to attend Florida Poly?

❖ How would you describe your level of effort and commitment to your academic performance this semester? What things could you have done differently this semester to be more successful?

❖ Which Florida Poly resources did you utilize this semester to help you succeed at the University?

❖ What are the steps you will take to better position yourself for success during your remaining time at Florida Poly?

❖ What are your plans specifically for next semester to make sure you are more successful?

My signature confirms that I understand the ARB may consider the information I provided above while reviewing my current term performance, and that I will adhere to their recommendations or imposed restrictions for my continued enrollment and academic progress.
