THE FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSED REGULATION IS PROVIDED BELOW:

FPU-2.006 Application Fee and Admissions Deposit.

(1) The University has established the fees set forth in this regulation. The fees listed are in addition to fees set forth in other University regulations and other charges that are authorized by law.

(2) Application Fee.

(a) Unless otherwise provided herein, an individual who applies for admission to the University or for enrollment as a non-degree seeking student (collectively referred to as “Applicant”) shall pay a non-refundable application fee in the amount of $30.

(b) Upon the Applicant’s request, the University will waive the application fee if the Applicant provides documentation that he/she received a fee waiver based upon economic need as determined by the College Board or the American College Testing Program.

(3) Admissions Deposit.

(a) An individual who has been admitted to an undergraduate, graduate, or professional degree program of the University will, upon the individual’s acceptance to the University, pay a non-refundable admissions deposit in the amount of $200 in order to secure his/her admission to the University.

(b) Upon the individual’s request, the University will waive the admissions deposit if the individual provides documentation that he/she received an application fee waiver because of economic need as determined by the College Board or the American College Testing Program.

(c) The University will apply the admissions deposit as partial payment toward the individual’s tuition upon the individual’s registration at the University. If the individual does not enroll in the University, the University will administer the admissions deposit in accordance with the Board of Governors’ regulations.

Specific Authority: Fla. Stat. §1009.24, BOG Regulations 1.001(6) and 7.003(2)(c) and (2)(i)
