Responsible Division/Department: Academic Affairs
Initiating Authority: Terry Parker, Provost & Executive Vice President, Academic Affairs

A. APPLICABILITY/ACCOUNTABILITY:

This policy applies to all students graduating from the University.

B. POLICY STATEMENT:

The date of graduation indicated on a student's transcript is the date of the commencement ceremony immediately following the semester in which the student completes the necessary requirements in FPU-5.0094AP Baccalaureate Degree Graduation Requirements if the student is an undergraduate student or FPU-5.0096AP Graduate Degree Graduation Requirements if the student is a graduate student. However, if the next commencement ceremony is more than one month after the last day of classes for the semester in which the student completes the necessary requirements, the date of graduation indicated on the student's transcript is the "Degree Status Available" date as noted on the Academic Calendar.
